

THE WARREN ALPERT FOUNDATION

AID·GC

Alliance to Increase Diversity
in Genetic Counseling

GENETIC COUNSELING SUMMER INTERNSHIP

six weeks long ● full time ● paid

at one of the five participating AID-GC Masters in Genetic Counseling Programs

40 HOURS PER WEEK FOR SIX WEEKS @ $17/HOUR = $4,080
MONDAY, JUNE 10, 2024 – FRIDAY, JULY 19, 2024

APPLICATION DEADLINE: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2024

- Designed for undergraduate students - rising juniors and seniors
- Provides opportunities for shadowing in multiple clinical settings, case conferences, research, and laboratory work
- Opportunities for one-on-one interactions with genetic counselors and current students

THIS PROGRAM IS MADE POSSIBLE BY THE ALLIANCE TO INCREASE DIVERSITY IN GENETIC COUNSELING, WHICH IS FUNDED BY A GRANT FROM
THE WARREN ALPERT FOUNDATION

SCAN HERE OR VISIT

[https://upenn.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe
/form/SV_9SqTZYaO6Hgh3zU](https://upenn.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_9SqTZYaO6Hgh3zU)

FOLLOW US FOR UPDATES:

APPLICANT QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must:

- Be undergraduate students (rising juniors and seniors)
- Have a keen interest in health professions and genetics
- Have a GPA of at least 3.0 and have completed some college-level coursework in biology, chemistry, and/or genetics
- Submit clearance paperwork which includes criminal background checks and provide the immunization records (including for COVID-19) that will be required for clearance by the clinical sites
- Have access to housing in the city where your program resides

SAMPLE INTERNSHIP SCHEDULE

Week 1	Orientation, genetics seminars, project intro, meet your mentors
Week 2	Genetic Counseling Lab experience, professional development, case conferences, project time
Week 3	Intro to Research Genetic Counseling, mentor meetings, project time
Week 4	2-3 days per week shadowing with Genetic Counselors, attend case conference, meet genetic counseling graduate students
Week 5	2-3 days per shadowing with Genetic Counselors, project time, case presentations
Week 6	Final project presentation, book club discussion, mentor reception